

A THEOLOGY OF SINGING

INTRODUCTION:

Historically, when Christians came together they sang. The distinctiveness of Christian singing is that it is done "in the name of" our Lord Jesus Christ. This means to sing by His authority.

I. A Theology of Singing.

A. Singing is a way of preaching Christ.

1. Much of our singing should be about Christ.
2. When we sing about Jesus we are singing our creed.

B. Singing is a confession of faith.

1. Singing is associated with prayer.
2. If we can say a confession of faith, we can sing a confession of faith.

C. Singing is an expression of thanks.

D. Singing expresses the presence of the Holy Spirit and of the Word of Christ.

E. Singing praise is a spiritual sacrifice.

F. Singing is a sharing in heavenly praise.

G. Singing is for mutual edification.

1. In singing we speak, teach, and admonish one another.
2. The reciprocal nature of our singing is significant.

H. Singing promotes harmony and unity in the church.

I. Singing expresses deep religious emotion.

CONCLUSION:

No one else can do our singing for us.
